

Thailand Convention and Exhibition Bureau
Statement on the Recent Political Situation in Thailand
For Meetings, Incentives, Conventions, and Exhibitions Delegates
6th May 2009

On behalf of the Royal Thai Government, Thailand Convention and Exhibition Bureau as the official organization to attract Meetings, Incentives, Conventions, and Exhibitions would like to inform you that following the peaceful end to the recent street demonstrations in Thailand, the state of emergency was lifted on Friday 24 April, and with this easing in tensions, the security situation has greatly improved.

And the Royal Thai Government has announced "Thailand: Moving Forward with Political Reform" Progress made on political reform following the revocation of the Declaration of the Severe Emergency Situation in the Areas of Bangkok and its vicinities.

Meanwhile, peaceful demonstrations may continue as part of the exercise of rights and freedoms under the Thai Constitution. Be that as it may, the Royal Thai Government and the authorities concerned nevertheless will continue to be vigilant and ensure peace and order as well as safety of the public including foreign visitors in Thailand.

MICE travelers to Thailand can therefore look forward to their visit in the knowledge that their business events will be managed smoothly, to the highest professional standards, and value for money that they can enjoy the diverse leisure opportunities, shopping and culinary pleasures that Thailand offers, along with the timeless and legendary Thai culture and hospitality.

We welcome you with an open heart, and will keep you updated with the situation. Should you require any further information, please do not hesitate to call TCEB office: +(66) 2694 6000 , visit www.tceb.or.th or contact info@tceb.or.th .

#####